Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments:

On 07-February-2005, the attorney of record emailed the examiner detailed arguments as to why in his view, the primary reference cited by the examiner (Andrews et al.) did not meet every limitation on the independent claims. The examiner fully considered the arguments and found them to be persuasive, in that Andrews et al, used in a 35 U.S.C. 102(e) rejection, does not teach the recitation of "copying the existing data entry from the current database location to create a previous data entry in a historical database location" before modifying the contents of the location on the current database. Further, the examiner noted that although Andrews et al teaches "archiving" data in a database, he does not specifically teach a "historical database" separate from the current database.

The attorney agreed to file an official response to the previous Office Action, including the arguments made in the above referenced emailed agenda. Upon receipt of the official response containing the above arguments, the examiner will withdraw the previous rejection, conduct an updated search, and communicate the search results as appropriate.
